

In order to comply with relevant domestic personal data protection laws, Farglory Life (to be referred to as “The Company”) has implemented the BS10012:2017 Personal Data Management System as the standard for our personal data management system. This statement is made to ensure that our employees, customers, and cooperating partners are aware of the Company’s personal data protection policy and objectives.

1. The Company will only process personal data within the scope required by law or legitimate organizational purposes.
2. The Company will only process the minimum amount of personal data necessary for the intended purposes.
3. The Company will provide clear notifications in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act of our country.
4. For personal data directly collected from minors, the Company will ensure appropriate security measures are in place.
5. The Company will only process relevant and appropriate personal data.
6. The Company will process personal data fairly and lawfully.
7. The Company maintains a register of personal data processed by itself.
8. The company will maintain accurate personal data and keep it updated as necessary.
9. The company will retain personal data only for the period required by law or legitimate organizational purposes and ensure timely and appropriate disposal.
10. The Company respects individuals' rights regarding their personal data.
11. The Company ensures the security of all personal data it holds.
12. The Company only transfers personal data abroad when necessary and when personal data is appropriately protected.

13. If our company's service targets are EU residents, we will have appropriate response strategies.
14. The Company follows various exceptions allowed under the Personal Data Protection Act.
15. The Company develops and implements a personal data management system to implement this policy.
16. The Company confirms the degree to which internal and external stakeholders are involved in the governance of the organization's personal data management system as appropriate.
17. The Company designates specific personnel with responsibilities and accountability for the personal data management system.
18. The Company maintains appropriate records of the processing of personal data.

Farglory Life Insurance Personal Data Protection Objectives

1. The company will effectively inform individuals about the collection of their personal data in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act and facilitate the exercise of individuals' rights regarding their personal data.
2. The company will conduct publicity and education training on personal data protection for company colleagues and business personnel to ensure that Security of personal information.
3. The Company will manage individuals who have expressed refusal to receive marketing communications to prevent reuse effectively.
4. The company will ensure the security and accuracy of all personal data and conduct regular security incident drills to reduce possible risks.